

The Big INSET: Effective Assessment, Adaptive Teaching & Quality Education

Time	Details			Location
8:30 – 9:05am	Conference registration			Foyer
09:10 – 09:15am	Conference Welcome Ben Fuller, HFL Education			Conference Room
9:15 – 10:30am	“The role of assessment within quality education” Ben Fuller, & Sophie MacNeill, HFL Education This will explore and discuss key themes and principles regarding the way effective formative assessment practice can lead to a higher quality of education and stronger outcomes for learners. We will also explore how this sits within the new Ofsted framework and how it relates to the findings of the Curriculum and Assessment Review.			Conference Room
10:30 – 11am	Break			Hawthorn
11:05 – 11:45am	Workshops			Workshop Rooms
	Formative Assessment in EYFS: Adapting and Scaffolding for Continuous Learning Nicki Waller, Early Years Adviser, HFL Education	Adaptive Teaching in Primary English Primary English Adviser, HFL Education	Empowering Every Learner: Assistive Technology in Your Classroom Chris Carter, EdTech Adviser, HFL Education
11:50 – 12:30pm	Workshops
	Adaptive Teaching for learners with SEND Nat Fogden, SEND Adviser HFL Education	Adaptive Teaching in Primary Maths Primary Maths Adviser, HFL Education	Implementing assessment strategies at a whole school level and how to monitor to ensure impact Primary DSEA, HFL Education

01438 544 464
hfleducation.org

12:30pm	Lunch			Hawthorn
1:50 – 2:30pm	Workshops			Workshop Rooms
	What to assess? – Identifying core learning in foundation subjects Claire Watson, Primary Curriculum Adviser, HFL Education	Implementing assessment strategies at a whole school level and how to monitor to ensure impact Primary DSEA, HFL Education	Adaptive Teaching in Primary Science
2:30 – 3:00pm	Break			Function Room
3:00 – 3:30pm	Closing Remarks & Conference End			Conference Room