

LIFE SKILLS FOR LITTLE ONES

– STARTING SCHOOL OR NURSERY.

Is your child starting school or nursery this September?

In Hertfordshire libraries you can find lots of picture books that can prepare your little ones for this big change and will help dispel any worries or fears they may have. Here is a selection of some of our favourites.

You can request books free of charge with a child's library membership card. Click on the book cover pictures to link to the Hertfordshire library catalogue or visit www.hertfordshire.gov.uk/libraries

To celebrate this special milestone, library staff are looking forward to presenting children with a 'My First Day at School' certificate. If your child is starting nursery or reception class then do visit any Hertfordshire Library so they can receive one.

If your child is not already a library member, then now is the perfect time for them to join. With their 'My First' library card, children can choose from thousands of picture books to share with you. They can also discover our 'Beginning to read' books – perfect for building confidence and helping to make learning to read a fun adventure.
